

The Window Valet “The Best Experience”

Luxury Service Standards | Lead Handling | Sales |
Operations | Partner Experience

OUR MISSION

At The Window Valet, we are not just selling blinds, shades, shutters, draperies, exterior screens, awnings, and motorization.

We are delivering:

- Trust
- Communication
- Professionalism
- Reliability
- Speed
- Luxury
- Confidence
- An unforgettable customer experience

Every single interaction matters.

Every call.

Every text.

Every estimate.

Every install.

Every follow-up.

Every problem.

Every teammate interaction.

Every partner relationship.

The question every team member must ask themselves is:

Are we delivering THE BEST EXPERIENCE right now?

Not average.

Not acceptable.

Not “good enough.” The

BEST EXPERIENCE.

That standard applies to:

- Leads
 - Customers
 - Builders
 - Designers
 - Vendors
 - Suppliers
 - Subcontractors
 - Teammates
 - Referral partners
 - Every person connected to our company
- Luxury is not just the product.

Luxury is HOW PEOPLE FEEL working with us.

COMPANY CORE EXPECTATION

We Do Not Let People Wonder

People should never have to:

- Chase us
- Wonder if we received their message
- Wonder where their estimate is
- Wonder when their install is
- Wonder who is showing up
- Wonder what happens next • Wonder if we care

Communication IS the experience.

Speed IS the experience.

Organization IS the experience.

Professionalism IS the experience.

THE WINDOW VALET EXPERIENCE STANDARD

Every department must operate under these principles:

1. FAST

- Fast response times
- Fast follow-up
- Fast estimates
- Fast issue resolution
- Fast scheduling

Luxury clients expect urgency.

2. ACCURATE

- Correct measurements
- Correct product selections
- Correct timelines
- Correct notes
- Correct pricing
- Correct ordering

Sloppy work destroys trust.

3. PROACTIVE

Do not wait for customers to ask.

We update first.

We communicate first. We solve first.

4. PROFESSIONAL

- Positive attitude
- Confident communication
- Clean appearance
- Organized systems
- Respectful language
- Ownership mentality

No excuses.

No finger-pointing. No drama.

5. RELATIONAL

People buy from people they trust.

Every interaction should feel:

- Friendly
- Helpful
- Organized
- Appreciative
- High-end
- Personal

We are building relationships, not transactions.

COMPANY-WIDE CUSTOMER JOURNEY

STAGE 1 — INQUIRY → LEAD

Goal: Turn every inquiry into a qualified lead opportunity.

Every inquiry matters:

- Facebook
- Google
- Website forms
- Phone calls
- Texts
- Home shows
- Walk-ins
- Builder referrals
- Designer referrals
- Repeat customers
- Service calls

ADMIN & SCHEDULING EXPECTATIONS

RESPONSE TIME STANDARD

- New inquiries responded to within 5 minutes whenever possible
- Missed calls returned immediately
- All voicemails returned same business day
- All texts acknowledged quickly
- No lead sits untouched

Speed wins business.

FIRST IMPRESSION STANDARD

The first interaction must feel:

- Friendly
- Helpful
- Excited
- Organized
- Luxury-level professional

Not robotic.

Not rushed.

Not annoyed.

LEAD QUALIFICATION EXPECTATIONS

Every lead should gather:

- Name
- Address
- Phone
- Email
- Project type
- Timeline
- Referral source
- Builder/neighborhood if applicable
- Decision maker information

The goal is not interrogation.

The goal is understanding the opportunity.

APPOINTMENT SETTING STANDARD

We are not “hoping” people book.

We confidently guide them into appointments.

Example mindset:

NOT:

“Call us if you want to move forward.”

INSTEAD:

“Let’s get your free design consultation scheduled so we can show you the best options.”

CALENDAR EXPECTATION

Appointments should be:

- Confirmed properly
- Mapped properly
- Assigned properly
- Synced correctly
- Accurate with notes
- Organized for design staff

No duplicate appointments.

No confusion.

No missing information.

STAGE 2 — APPOINTMENT → ESTIMATE SALES TEAM EXPECTATIONS

SALES IS ABOUT TRUST

Customers buy confidence.

Not pressure.

Our salespeople must:

- Build relationships
- Educate customers
- Listen carefully
- Understand lifestyle needs
- Present solutions professionally

SALES STANDARDS

EVERY APPOINTMENT MUST INCLUDE:

- Professional appearance
- On-time arrival
- Preparedness
- Product expertise
- Solution-based recommendations
- Strong communication
- Respect for customer homes

“MAKE A FRIEND” EXPECTATION

People should LIKE doing business with us.

Customers should feel:

- Comfortable
- Understood
- Appreciated
- Confident

The best salespeople create trust first.

ESTIMATE EXPECTATION

24-HOUR RULE

95% of estimates should be delivered within 24 hours.

Delays kill momentum.

Delays lose sales.

Delays damage trust.

ESTIMATE QUALITY STANDARD

Every estimate should be:

- Clean
- Accurate
- Organized
- Easy to understand
- Professionally written

Luxury clients expect professionalism.

FOLLOW-UP EXPECTATION

The fortune is in the follow-up.

Every lead must have:

- Follow-up calls
- Follow-up texts
- Follow-up emails
- Notes entered properly
- Next action scheduled

No dead leads without documented follow-up.

STAGE 3 — ESTIMATE → ORDER CLOSING EXPECTATIONS

We confidently ask for the business. Not aggressively. Professionally.

ORDER ACCURACY STANDARD

Before ordering:

- Measurements verified
- Product selections verified
- Colors verified
- Motorization verified
- Notes verified
- Customer expectations verified

Measure twice. Order once.

Mistakes cost:

- Profit
- Time
- Reputation
- Reviews
- Trust

STAGE 4 — CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE → OPERATIONS OPERATIONAL WONDERLAND

This is where most companies fail.

The Window Valet must dominate here.

Once a customer orders:

They should feel MORE confident, not less.

CUSTOMER STANDARD

Customers should ALWAYS know:

- What is happening
- What happens next
- Timeline expectations
- Delays immediately
- Installation expectations
- Service expectations

No disappearing. No silence.

COMMUNICATION

PROJECT EXPECTATIONS

Every project should feel:

MANAGEMENT

- Organized
- Managed
- Professional
- Predictable

The customer should never feel chaos internally.

Even if problems happen:

WE CONTROL THE EXPERIENCE.

INSTALLATION STANDARD

Installers represent the brand.

They are not “just installers.” They are:

- Brand ambassadors
- Customer experience representatives
- Relationship builders

EXPERIENCE

INSTALLATION EXPECTATIONS

Install teams must:

- Arrive on time
- Communicate professionally
- Respect homes
- Clean up completely
- Explain products
- Ensure satisfaction before leaving

Every install should feel premium.

SERVICE DEPARTMENT EXPECTATION

Problems are opportunities.

How we respond matters more than the problem itself.

Never:

- Defensive
- Dismissive
- Slow
- Argumentative

Instead:

- Listen
- Own it
- Communicate
- Resolve quickly

STAGE 5 — REVIEWS → REFERRALS → REPEAT BUSINESS OUR GOAL IS NOT ONE SALE

Our goal is:

- Repeat customers
- Referrals
- Builder relationships
- Designer relationships
- Long-term trust
- Lifetime value

REVIEW EXPECTATION

Every happy customer should be asked for:

- Google review
- Facebook review
- Photos
- Testimonials
- Referrals

The experience should naturally create promoters.

PARTNER EXPERIENCE STANDARD

This applies to:

- Builders
- Designers
- Realtors
- Contractors
- Property managers
- Commercial partners

Partners should feel:

- Prioritized
- Appreciated
- Informed
- Protected
- Proud to refer us

PARTNER EXPECTATION

COMMUNICATION

Partners should NEVER:

- Chase updates
- Wonder about timelines
- Feel ignored
- Feel embarrassed referring us

Partner trust is earned daily.

SUPPLIER & VENDOR EXPECTATION

Our professionalism extends outside the company.

We treat:

- Vendors
- Suppliers
- Subcontractors
- Delivery teams

- Industry partners

With:

- Respect
- Professionalism
- Clear communication
- Accountability

Strong relationships create better service and better results.

INTERNAL TEAM EXPECTATION WE ARE ONE TEAM

No department blaming.

No:

- “That’s not my job”
- “Sales messed up”
- “Scheduling failed”
- “Operations dropped it” Customers do not care whose fault it is.

They only remember the experience.

OWNERSHIP MENTALITY

Every employee must think:

- “How do I help solve this?”
- “How do I improve the experience?”
- “How do I protect the brand?”

RESPONSE TIME EXPECTATIONS

ALL TEAM MEMBERS

- Return calls quickly
- Return texts quickly
- Return emails quickly

- Acknowledge communication quickly
- Silence creates frustration.

LUXURY EXPERIENCE STANDARD

Luxury does not mean expensive.

Luxury means:

- Attention to detail
- Excellent communication
- Organization
- Speed
- Professionalism
- Confidence
- Clean execution
- Consistency

The Window Valet experience should feel:

- High-end
- Smooth
- Reliable
- Personalized
- Stress-free

NON-NEGOTIABLES

WE DO NOT:

- Ignore leads
- Ignore customers
- Miss follow-up
- Delay communication
- Leave customers wondering
- Make excuses
- Create internal chaos externally
- Accept average service

EVERY EMPLOYEE SHOULD ASK:

Before every interaction:

- Am I creating confidence?
- Am I improving the experience?
- Am I communicating clearly?
- Am I acting with urgency?
- Am I representing a luxury brand?
- Would I be impressed if I were the customer?

FINAL COMPANY STANDARD

We are building:

- The best experience
- The best reputation
- The best systems
- The best communication
- The best service culture
- The best customer journey

Anyone can sell window coverings.

Very few companies deliver a true luxury experience.

That is what separates The Window Valet.

That is the standard.

That is the expectation.

Every lead.

Every customer.

Every partner.

Every project.

Every day.
